DAY 1 - FRIDAY

A pleasurable start

Begin your day with a delicious breakfast.

Mercedes-Benz plant tour

Car enthusiasts and technology fans get an exclusive view into the Sindelfingen Mercedes-Benz plant and its rich heritage on a discovery tour.

International treats

Enjoy lunch in one of the town's many international or local cuisine restaurants.

Tourist assistance and art

Make a stop at the i-Punkt on the Marktplatz. Our assistants will be happy to help you choose among the current events program and the many local attractions and sights. The Galerie Stadt Sindelfingen, a home for contemporary art, is located in the same building.

Tip: Take a short trip down the street to Kevin Kugel's chocolate confectioneries shop. Try their handcrafted chocolate creations and watch them being made in the glass walled open-view production area.

Explore the historic old town

How about a self-guided tour through the quaint old town? The beautifully restored half-timbered houses, winding narrow streets and historic Martinskirche will enchant you. Along the way, you'll find many local shops that invite browsing and buying. Find out more about Sindelfingen's history during visits to the Webereimuseum and the Stadtmuseum (German language and no entrance fees).

Dining at the Wettbachplatz

End your exciting day in Sindelfingen with dinner in one of the numerous restaurants at the charming Wettbachplatz.

DAY 2 - SATURDAY

Weekly market on the Marktplatz

Start your Saturday morning with an enticing stroll through Sindelfingen's weekly market. Taste local products and culinary delicacies, and take part in the market's colorful hustle and bustle.

Nature break

Take in the peaceful morning atmosphere and recharge your batteries with a refreshing walk through the town forest along one of the many marked circular paths, such as the Waldbadepfad or the Squirrel Trail.

Art and coffee

Visit the acclaimed museum SCHAUWERK Sindelfingen and engage with its contemporary exhibitions.

Tip: In the museum's café PS3, you can refresh yourself in a cultured atmosphere with seasonal dishes and drinks.

Shopping fun

Enjoy the rest of the day with an extended window-shopping tour. You'll find a plentiful choice of stores at Breuningerland or Stern Center. Be inspired by the latest trends and take a break in one of the cozy cafés. Bring your evening to a pleasant close in one of the broad variety of restaurants.

DAY 3 - SUNDAY

Pure leisure fun

After a hearty breakfast, begin your last day with fun activities. You'll find many attractions and diversions for young and old at the SENSAPOLIS indoor amusement park. Or you can enjoy refreshing water fun and relax at the Badezentrum Sindelfingen, the largest community and sports pool complex in the Stuttgart region.

Sommerhofenpark and Klostersee lake for relaxation

Spend the afternoon outdoors in the park or by the lake. The Sommerhofenpark, a former Regional Garden Show site, offers a mix of ornamental lawns, flower meadows, perennial flower beds, a rose garden and age-appropriate playgrounds. A mini steam train ride and the Kneipp water walking pool provide additional entertainment.

Just a short walk away lies the 2.5 hectare Klostersee, with its natural stone paths, an iris garden and fountains big and small. Together, the Klostersee and the Sommerhofenpark offer a well-rounded retreat close by to the lively town center.

Tip: From April to October, enjoy the laid-back feeling in the Wiesengarten open-air restaurant.

Conclude your visit with a tip on souvenirs

The i-Punkt always has a variety of souvenirs from the current collection which you can buy to be a personal memento of your visit to Sindelfingen.
